

VOCABULARY DOZEN!

skills

Things that you can do well.

take turns

We take turns so everyone gets a turn.

negotiate

Coming to an agreement through discussion

disagreements

This means that you have a difference of opinion/ you think different things.

evaluation

Make a judgement about something e.g. You might think about what went well and what didn't go well.

develop

To get better at something/ to learn new things.

share ideas

This means that you talk to other people and tell them what you think or write down what you think.

compromise

You can't always have things your way so you need to compromise and sometimes you need to do something in a different way.

working together

When you work together on shared goal, you collaborate. You don't just split a project up evenly but work together on creating solutions together.

Successful

Success is the opposite of failure. It means you have achieved the desired aim or result.

mutual respect

Mutual means shared between two people. Mutual respect is understanding and respecting that we don't all share the same beliefs and values.

tolerance

Tolerance is when you accept and show respect towards others who are different in their race, culture, habits and beliefs.

KEY AREAS OF LEARNING

- We will think about what we and other people good at.
- We will reflect on the new skills we would like to develop.
- We will learn how we can listen well to other people.
- We will think about how we can work well in a group.
- We will learning why it is important to take turns?

- We will explore how we can negotiate to sort out disagreements?
- We will think about how our skills are useful in a group?
- We will reflect on what a useful evaluation is?

This topic links to the British Values of: Mutual Respect and Tolerance