

VOCABULARY DOZEN!

Open questions

Open questions allow you to give a detailed answer rather than saying yes or no.

constructive feedback

Constructive feedback gives you ideas of how to improve or what to do next.

negotiate

Coming to an agreement through discussion

disagreements

This means that you have a difference of opinion/ you think different things.

evaluation

Make a judgement about something e.g. You might think about what went well and what didn't go well.

persevere

To persevere means to keep going even when you are finding something tricky.

share ideas and opinions

This means that you talk to other people and tell them what you think or write down what you think.

compromise

You can't always have things your way so you need to compromise and sometimes you need to do something in a different way.

working together

When you work together on shared goal, you collaborate. You don't just split a project up evenly but work together on creating solutions together.

effectively

Effectively means to do something well or to good effect.

mutual respect

Mutual means shared between two people. Mutual respect is understanding and respecting that we don't all share the same beliefs and values.

tolerance

Tolerance is when you accept and show respect towards others who are different in their race, culture, habits and beliefs.

KEY AREAS OF LEARNING

- We will think about what we are good at and what others are good at.
- We will reflect on the new skills we would like or need to develop.
- We will learn how we can listen well to other people.
- We will explore how to ask open questions.
- We will think about how we can share our views and opinions effectively.
- We will reflect on how different people contribute to a group task.
- We will think about how we can persevere and overcome obstacles to our learning.

- We will explore who we can work well in a group.
- We will reflect on what a useful evaluation is.
- We will learn about how to give constructive feedback and receive it from others.

This topic links to the British Values of: Mutual Respect and Tolerance