

Key facts, people and dates

VOCABULARY DOZEN!

Twentieth Century

From 1900-1999

Seaside Resort- a town or village near the seaside where people go on holiday.

The Recent Past

When your grandparents were children.

Accommodation – a place where people will stay while on holiday

Leisure- what people choose to do when they are not at work.

Souvenir- something you bring home with you to remind you of your holiday.

Tourist

A person on holiday

Promenade- a long area at the side of the sea where people can walk

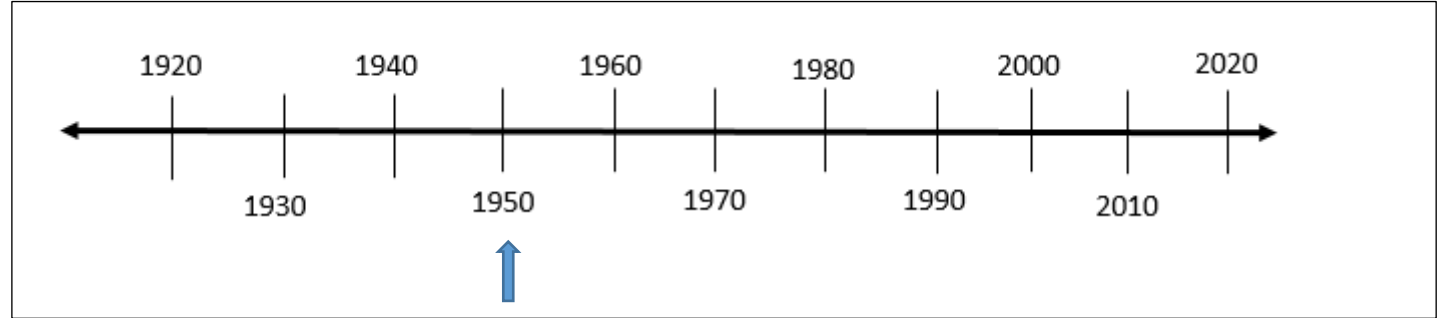

Deck Chair- a folding wooden chair made of wood and fabric.

Punch and Judy- the names of puppets used in popular seaside shows in the 1950s.

Bank holiday- a national holiday when people are given time off from school and work.

Pier

A tall structure built into the sea

Punch and Judy Shows were popular.

Camping was popular in the 1950s.

Many people enjoyed donkey rides.

Carousels could often be found at the seaside.

The Box Brownie Camera was a popular Camera for people to take photos with in the 1950s.

Souvenirs help us to preserve memories about our holidays and happy times. People may bring them home for themselves or sometimes as a gift for friends and family.

In the 1950s most people were allowed to have 2 weeks off work. Lots of people used this time to have a holidays in the UK.

Many people go on holiday to have fun, to be together with family and friends, to explore new places and to try out new things. Lots of families go on holiday in the summer because

YEAR 2 History- How have Seaside holidays changed over time?

