Dear Alana

It was pleasing to receive the final report of your recent ungraded Ofsted inspection.

The report highlights that the school has many strengths which include:-

- An ambitious and well-designed curriculum which support pupils to achieve well.
- Prioritising the teaching of reading and ensuring it is at the heart of the curriculum.
- Leaders have prioritised pupils' wider development offering them a variety of experience throughout their time at your school.
- The identification and support of pupils with SEND, providing carefully tailored extra help, to ensure they learn well.

We know that such a report is the outcome of dedication and hard work overtime from the school community, including the careful oversight by your governors who give freely of their time and energy. Everyone can feel justifiably proud of what you have achieved and the good level of education you are providing to our young people.

We wish you all the best as you reflect on all the positive comments within the report and as you move on to the next stages in the school's work on your continuous improvement journey.

Best wishes in the important work you do.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Callaghan
