Mrs Brown's bit...

Captain Kindness joins our other superheroes!

As part of anti-bullying week, each class designed their own certificate and attributes for Captain Kindness. Our first award winners were announced last week and it was an absolute pleasure to celebrate their achievements. We often talk about kindness in collective worship - with our Eynesbury values at the root of demonstrating kindness. By teaching kindness, we can enjoy happier, healthier, and more fulfilling lives.

Christmas is fast approaching, Christmas jumper Fridays return, Festive Fun day is almost upon us, Christmas carols and songs are being sung, KS1 are learning lines. We continue to maintain the pace of learning across the school and will also be getting our Year 6's out to Hilltop...so the next three weeks are going to be busy!

We are looking forward to seeing many of you on Monday morning for our maths parent workshop. The session will be led by Gary Casey, our maths adviser. There will also be an opportunity to visit classrooms and see the children in action.

Wishing you all a great weekend, see you on Monday morning at 8:40am. As ever, stay safe and look after each other.

Our Eynesbury Eight!

- Our Captain Kindness awards are being celebrated each Friday. The staff are speaking highly about the award winners and the positive impact they are having in their classes.
- We have started to listen to our Festive Tunes in Friday's celebrations! Ho, ho, ho!
- Eynesbury School football team have played two matches in the past week. We played away at Warboys and narrowly lost on penalties. We then played Somersham at home which went to extra time. The final score was 4 -3. Excellent team work from everyone involved.
- Final preparations for the Year 6 residential to Hilltop are in full flow. Exciting times ahead!
- Years 1 and 2 had a fabulous visit to the cinema last week. Popcorn treats, comfy seats and magical movie to enjoy....do school days get any better than this?
- The Sock Puppet showdown was a spectacular success. So many entries! What a creative group of children we have!
- The festive fun day next Friday is going to be fantastic fun. Our new PTA committee have got a brilliant day planned for the classes. Huge thanks to them all for treating our children, we very much appreciate it.
- Year 5's class Collective Worship was lovely this week, the values of honesty and forgiveness were explored with humour and reflection. Well done Year 5!

Please return all copies of the home/school agreement and code of conduct documents that were sent out this term, if you need another set please let us know**

Christmas jumper Friday returns! To get into the festive spirit, please feel free to send your children into school wearing their Christmas jumper and school uniform bottoms! More ho, ho, ho!

Reading matters! Please support us and listen to your child read.

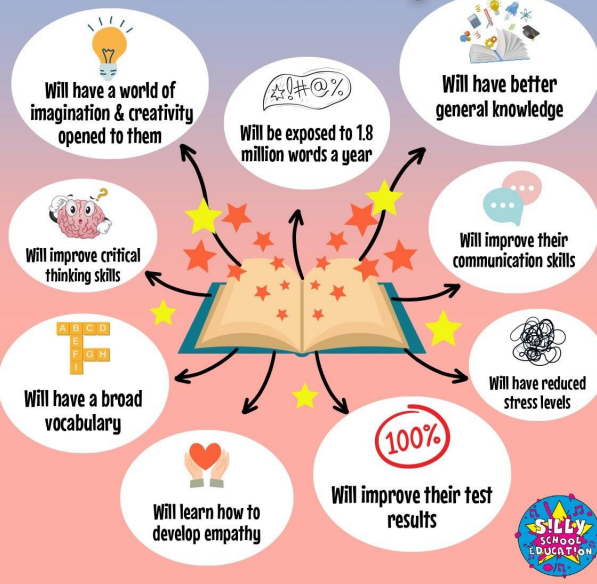

Reading is the doorway to the world, our children will be able to access everything if they become fluent readers. As a school we are continuing to work hard to develop a great love of reading and a reading culture in our school.
