Mrs Brown's bit...time to reflect!

Tis the season to be jolly...

This week we have shown some more prospective parents around school! I spoke with passion about just how wonderful our school is, our children's enthusiasm to be the very best that they can be and the journey it has been on and continues to take.

Our Primary School advisor has also visited us along with the Director of Education for Ely Diocese. We have also welcomed our Maths and English and Early Years advisors. Their notes of visit are incredibly positive about 'all things Eynesbury' and are a testament to the commitment by the children and staff into making our school the very best that it can be. Well done Team Eynesbury!

Year 6 returned from Hilltop, tired and muddy but having made incredible memories of their time together. It was lovely to spend the week away with them.

School is looking and sounding more and more festive each day. Christmas trees are sprouting here, there and everywhere, songs blaring out and today we have enjoyed time with our PTA team making things, singing and eating! Carols are being practised, KS1 are rehearsing their performance and there is a warm and cosy feeling everywhere.

Eynesbury families and friends, have a wonderful weekend! Take care of each other and see you all again on Monday morning at 8:40am.
