Mrs Brown's bit...time to reflect!

'The school provides exceptional opportunities for pupils' wider development'...

When I write the Echo, I reflect on the last few weeks and what has been happening in school. Our school provides a wealth of great opportunities for our children, inside and outside the classroom. This was rightly recognised in July during our Ofsted inspection. The past couple of weeks alone have been very busy with visits, and special days in addition to the usual curriculum activities.

The staff work so hard together in creating such memorable activities for the children which they love! The atmosphere in school this week, especially on Tuesday was wonderful; smiley, happy children, working as a family, with children in all year groups mixed together. It was lovely to be part of and made us all feel great!

The next few weeks bring us another visit to the cinema for KS1, a residential visit for Year 6 and the countdown to Christmas starts! What a wonderful time for us all to enjoy!

The Echo will return on Friday 6th December! This will be our PTA Festive Fun Day and very first Christmas jumper day of the season! Ho, ho, ho!

Wishing you all a lovely weekend. Take care of each other and see you all again on Monday morning at 8:40am.

MAKE THE MOST OF
EVERY MINUTE
.....
OF YOUR DAY

This Week's Eynesbury's Eight!

- We had time to reflect during our Remembrance Service and give thanks to those who have served or are serving in the armed forces. Our wreaths were well received in the Church.
- Y3/4 and 5/6 had a wonderful day out at Ely Cathedral and visiting a Gurdwara and Mosque. They all learned a great deal from their visits and brought back some very useful knowledge and facts.
- It was Anti bullying week this week. We thought about our value of respect and how much kindness matters. The children shared stories about differences and how we are all unique.
- Odd socks day and house day fell together. The children loved getting involved in designing socks, creating art work and slogans. It was a lovely day and we all had a great time.
- Mrs Truman organised a Maths Number day for us all to enjoy with problem solving activity called Magic Numbers! Problem solving in maths is such an important skill and one we are getting really good at!
- It was Children in Need day today! We enjoyed wearing non- uniform, it was a real treat! Thank you for your donations!
- KS2 enjoyed their cinema trip to see Migration! KS1 are going to the cinema next week. Great times!

- The children have created a stained glass window style piece of artwork for the front of the hall. Just a few finishing touches and it will be installed!
